

The dreams of a neglected child...

a hug, a shoulder to cry on, a mother's love.

Who in your life has made your dreams come true? Are they anything like the dreams of this child?

Every child should have a chance to dream of a bright future, with a loving family. But this is not always possible, as poverty, illness, abuse and deaths in the family take parents away. Children without parents hunger for love and affection. In over 500 SOS Children's Villages, SOS Mothers are the "Other Mothers" who are stepping in to fill the gap when biological parents are absent.

SOS Children's Villages vows to help 1 million children at risk of losing their families so we can reach our vision: a loving home for every child. Help us. Help them.

Over our 60+ year history, we have had many celebrations in honor of the vital contributions made by SOS Mothers, and now we extend the invitation to let the world know about your Other Mother.
